

I oppose taking a vote that would lead to more media consolidation. As a federal entity, the FCC should represent we the people rather than private interest. I urge you to keep current ownership rules.